

FEATURED ARTIST

Prairie Mitchell is finishing up her associates in Digital Cinema Production at Oklahoma City Community College and plans to attend the University of Oklahoma to major in Media Arts. Her career plans are to work in the film industry as a film editor. Her passions of film and photography, Mitchell's Chickasaw, Muscogee and Seminole heritage influences her work in telling stories in scripts, editing and photographs. She loves to listen to family stories intertwined with the history of the state and hopes to one day incorporate those stories to film, while her photography reflects nature and landscapes in abstract forms.
