

Traverse the outdoors in the Southeast region of Chickasaw Country! Be sure to check out more itineraries at our website, ChickasawCountry.com!

Davis

Davis lies in the heart of Chickasaw Country. The town is bustling with small-town charm offering an old-fashioned Main Street to antique stores and boutiques. Come out to Davis to see the oldest park in Oklahoma with the largest waterfall in the state! The recreational area has been a popular family destination since its opening and features a rock castle, natural caves, novelty shops, picnic sites, hiking trails, and much more.

Sulphur

Sulphur offers visitors the chance to have the best of all worlds. From luxurious attractions to abundant nature and wildlife to a historic downtown, the city of Sulphur has plenty for visitors to enjoy! Sulphur is full of opportunities to experience the history and success and of the Chickasaw Nation.

Things to do:

Chickasaw National Recreation Area

As one of only three Oklahoma parks affiliated with National Park Service, this national park is a beautiful oasis of water, foliage and wildlife creating the perfect backdrop for all your favorite outdoor activities. Located in south-central Oklahoma, the park offers year-round activities such as boating, skiing, sailing, fishing, swimming, hiking and camping. The Chickasaw National Recreation Area is Travel and Leisure Magazine's choice for the best campsite in Oklahoma and provides more than 30 miles of trails for both novice and experienced hikers to enjoy. The Travertine Nature Center serves as the park's main educational center providing groups with interactive learning opportunities, informational exhibits and other Ranger-led programs including guided hikes and educational tours on the flora and fauna found within the park.

Turner Falls Park

Nestled within the Arbuckle Mountains, Turner Falls Park is the oldest park in Oklahoma complete with natural caves, hiking trails, a stone castle and 77-foot waterfall creating natural swimming pools for all to enjoy. Discovered by Mazeppa Thomas Turner in 1878,

Turner Falls has received national publicity for its likeness to the Grand Canyon and Black Hills of South Dakota. Those visiting the park are encouraged to take full advantage of these outdoor activities and explore 1,500 acres of fun in the heart of the Arbuckle's.

777 Zip

Enjoy nature from a different perspective at Turner Falls. Located in Davis, Oklahoma, The Soaring Eagle zips you across 777 feet of open air with an incredible view of the Arbuckle Mountain Range, Collings Castle and Turner Falls. You can ride solo or bring a friend; just be sure to buckle up and hold on tight as you soar through the sky at speeds of up to 28 mph. Please see their website for more information and questions about physical limitations.

Places to Eat:

Arbuckle Mountain Fried Pies

Get your fingers on some fabulous fried pies! Located right off Exit 51 on I-35, Arbuckle Mountain Fried Pies is a famous stop for mouth-watering breakfast, lunch and dessert fried pies. The original location, which is nestled within the Arbuckle Mountains in Davis, offers small town charm and out-of-this-world pastries.

The Bistro

Thinking about what to eat next? Well head on over to The Bistro in Davis, Oklahoma where there are flavors and style abound, but the prices won't break the bank! The menu offers a great selection of signature soups, salads, sandwiches, flat breads, fresh fruit and more! If you are unsure of what to get, they have tasting menus to allow for a little something from a variety of items. Before you leave, make sure to give the local favorite Chicken Avocado Flatbread a try!

Places to Stay:

If you aren't planning on camping at Turner Falls or the CNRA, there are a couple others options in the Southeast region of Chickasaw Country!

A.L. Hideaway Cabins

Nestled in the woods less than a mile from Arbuckle Lake, take your pick of two efficient cedar cabins for a most peaceful retreat. The Hideaway Cabin is located in Davis, Oklahoma and is equipped with bed linen, towels, cooking utensils, television, fire pit and BBQ/smoker outside. The Hilltop Hideaway Cabin accommodates six or more guests with the same amenities.

Deer Creek Lodge

Deer Creek Lodge is only 2 minutes from Arbuckle Wilderness and 15 minutes from Chickasaw National Recreation Area. Five lodges are conveniently located near an RV park and motel. Two of the lodges have extra private rooms and a large deck overlooking the lake. There are endless outdoor activities offered including hiking trails, fishing, paddle boats, horseshoes, swimming, canoeing and volley ball.