HISTORY OF THE MANOR

The Flower Bluff mansion, on the SE corner of 4th St. and Muskogee Ave., was built in 1924 by Jesse Denton (J.D.) Ramsey (1860-1937), a former Sulphur Mayor, sheriff and entrepreneur who moved to Sulphur, after building hotels and other businesses in Lawton. He owned two movie theaters, a lake and an amusement concession and was later Mayor of Sulphur.

The Bluff has had many changes over its early 90 years. This historic two-story home contains approximately 4,728 square feet and has been a private residence, second home, bed and breakfast, and tearoom.

It is architecturally unique (best described as Arts and Crafts foursquare bungalow) and a key feature is a wraparound porch (first floor) and veranda (second floor). Its roof tiles are metal (not clay) and original to the structure.
